

Women's History Itinerary

DAY 1

Tour the Home of Adeline Rose

Dive deeper into Madison's history with a tour of the home of Adeline Rose. Born into an enslaved family during the Civil War, she built this beautiful cottage to raise her children.

Stop 1: 179 E Jefferson Street • Madison, Georgia 30650 • 706-342-9627

Enjoy Cooke Fountain at Madison Town Park

In the heart of beautiful Town Park is a replica of the Cooke Fountain. The original was first erected in 1908 in memory of local philanthropist Sarah Benham Judd Cooke.

Stop 2: 171c GA-83 • Madison, Georgia 30650 • visitmadisonga.com

Indulge Your Tastebuds

Have lunch at Martha's Favorites. At this woman-owned, family-run soul food restaurant, your taste buds will be thrilled and your stomach satisfied.

Stop 3: 310 W Washington Street • Madison, Georgia 30650 • 706-342-1600

Tour Heritage Hall

This stunning 1811 Greek Revival house was the home for Mrs. Sue Reid Walton Manley, known as "Madison's First Lady." Learn more about her and the house with a visit.

Stop 4: 277 South Main Street • Madison, Georgia 30650 • 706-342-9627

DAY 2

Get Schooled on Historic Preservation by Dorothy Gilmore

Dorothy Gilmore, a former educator, helped establish Madison's historic district and promote local businesses. Learn more about this dynamic woman's life.

Delight in Stories of Madison's Incredible Women

Take a self-guided walking tour through Madison's historic district and see the places where history has left its mark! Start the tour at www.visitmadisonga.com/tour

- Jessup-Atkinson Lindsey House
Stop 10. 433 S. Main Street • Madison, Georgia 30650
- Baldwin-Williford-Ruffin-Lanier House
Stop 12. 472 S. Main Street • Madison, Georgia 30650
- La Flora
Stop 15. 601 Old Post Rd. • Madison, Georgia 30650
- Nathan Bennett House
1 mile past Stop 16. 1170 Dixie Hwy. • Madison, Georgia 30650
- Boxwood
Stop 24. 357 Academy Street • Madison, Georgia 30650

Relax with Retail Therapy

In the afternoon, have fun shopping at our women-owned boutiques downtown! Amelia's Apparel is full of southern charm, Barkin' Dogs Shoe Co. has stylish shoes to bring your outfit together, and Archambault Interiors is a great place for home design. With many more women-owned businesses in Madison, come visit these amazing shops for yourself!

Madison Welcome Center
115 East Jefferson Street | Madison, Georgia 30650
706-342-4454 | www.visitmadisonga.com