DISCOVER Small Town Charm

In Madison, the pace is a bit slower and the tea tastes a little sweeter. Majestic, historic homes look over oak-lined streets, couples picnic by trickling fountains and manicured gardens burst with radiant color and fragrant perfume. It's a scene that won't ever go out of style. Whether you come for the day or stay for a lifetime, you'll arrive as a stranger but leave as a friend.

Established in 1809, Madison is the proud home to one of Georgia's largest and oldest historic districts. Lauded as one of "The South's Prettiest Towns," Southern Living magazine wrote, "In Madison, Georgia, you can witness the power of tireless historic preservation efforts and take in the glory of old Southern architecture—from Greek Revival to Victorian, this town showcases all the great architectural styles," while Garden & Gun magazine notes, "Madison's history isn't something suspended in amber... the town feels lived in, as comfortable as an old leather chair. Historic spaces find new purpose."

Indeed, Madison's historic downtown bustles with dozens of small, independently-owned shops and restaurants while numerous events invite visitors to celebrate art, food, music and so much more with the community. Slip into a Southern state of mind and take time to enjoy life's simple pleasures with us!

HISTORIC

House Museums

Once described in the 1845 Guide to Georgia as the "most cultured and aristocratic town on the stagecoach route from Charleston to New Orleans," Madison's immaculately preserved historic buildings and distinctive museums offer a peek into the town's history and heritage. Start your exploration into the town's unique story with a free, self-guided walking tour of the Madison Historic District and make sure to take time to visit the museums you pass along the way.

MADISON-MORGAN CULTURAL CENTER

Celebrating History and the Arts

The Madison-Morgan Cultural Center is a non-profit multidisciplinary history, performance, and visual arts center. The Center occupies an elegantly restored 1895 Romanesque Revival building in the heart of Madison's National Register Historic District that used to house one of the first graded public schools in the Southeast. For over 40 years, the Center has presented big-name entertainment in the historic setting of its renovated 1895 school auditorium.

Piedmont History Museum

Inside its walls, the Center hosts several permanent collections including a history exhibition highlighting the Piedmont region of GA in the 19th Century and a restored 1895 Schoolroom.

Live & Virtual Performances

The Center has used its Auditorium to build a reputation for excellence in performing arts through the presentation of theatre, dance, music, lectures, and other programs featuring regional, national and international talent.

Art Galleries

The Center houses three art galleries with three to four rotating exhibitions a year. The exhibitions feature all mediums, including ceramics, photography, and mixed media.

48 HOURS in Madison

DAY 1

Morning Begin your day at Farmview Market, a farmers market and café dedicated to the farm-to-table movement. Check out the butcher shop, grist mill and fresh produce before you hunker down for a breakfast that is sure to fuel your day.

After the market, it's time to tour some of Madison's museums. Appreciate history and the arts at the Madison-Morgan Cultural Center or the Morgan County African-American Museum, or trace the steps of Madison's former residents by touring one of Madison's four historic house museums. Can't choose just one? Get a combination ticket to visit Heritage Hall, Rogers House and Rose Cottage.

Afternoon Enjoy a delicious lunch at one of Madison's unique restaurants. Some local picks include Mad Taco, Martha's Favorites, Amici Pizza & Brewery and The Madison Produce Co.

Prepare to discover downtown with a stop at the Welcome Center. Here you can get started on the self-guided walking tour and make a game plan for exploring the Madison Historic District. You'll find unique boutiques, eateries, antiques and home décor stores galore, all within easy walking distance!

DAY 2

Take time to wander beautiful Morgan County. Just minutes outside of Madison, you can explore Georgia's second-largest state park Hard Labor Creek State Park and the "small but special" City of Rutledge, go horseback riding at an authentic dude ranch at Southern Cross Guest Ranch, or find joy in art discovering the incomparable works at Steffen Thomas Museum of Art.

GO EXPLORE

Morgan County

Whether you enjoy your morning drive through scenic byways edging pristine farmland or off the first tee at The Creek Golf Course at Hard Labor Creek State Park, visitors find their peace strolling Morgan County's small towns, discovering miles of trails at Hard Labor Creek State Park, fishing at one of three sparkling lakes, and so much more.

📍 Hard Labor Creek State Park 📷 Bill Vanderford

ESSENTIAL

Outdoor Experiences

Hard Labor Creek State Park

Georgia's second-largest state park offers a wide range of recreational opportunities in a beautiful wooded setting. With two stocked lakes, a sand beach popular with swimmers during summer months, an active events calendar and 20+ miles of trails for hiking, mountain biking and horseback riding, there are plenty of ways to enjoy an extended stay in one of the park's 20 completely renovated and spacious cabins or soak up the true camping experience at one of 50+ tent and RV campsites.

📍 The Creek Golf Course

The Creek Golf Course

As one of only eight state park golf courses in Georgia, this challenging 18-hole course has been named "the 4th sweetest deal in the USA" by Golf Digest Frugal Golfer. Pros, families and first-time golfers alike enjoy the course's pristine natural setting, Bermuda greens and signature 14th hole—not to mention affordable stay and play packages for a relaxing golf getaway.

Georgia's Lake Country

With more than 800 miles of scenic shorelines at nearby Lakes Oconee and Sinclair, it's no wonder this region is known as Georgia's Lake Country. Take your boat for a ride from Buckhead's convenient marinas to enjoy fishing the day away and discover more ways to explore at galakecountry.com.

📍 Harmony Oaks Cottage

Fun on the Farms

Pick your own fresh fruits at Sweets Berry Farm and CJ Orchards or discover the dairy production process with special tours of Rock House Creamery & Garden. Hop on a horseback ride at Southern Cross Guest Ranch or stay the night at one of two working alpaca farms, Harmony Oaks Cottage or Crafdal Farms. Here for the Holidays? Jack's Creek Christmas Tree Farm & Nursery offers a true "choose and cut" experience across 50 acres of historic farmland.

Small Town Splendor

Beyond Madison, the even smaller towns of Bostwick, Buckhead and Rutledge offer their own unique vibes, histories and stories to tell. From historic railroad beginnings to favorite filming locations, keep reading to discover what hidden gems each holds to be uncovered...

📍 Bostwick Cotton Gin Festival

📍 Sugar Creek Marina

📍 City of Rutledge Mural

The City of Bostwick

In the 1920s, when cotton was king, Bostwick too was a booming town. It contained several cotton gins, a cotton seed mill, masonry, depot, train station and more. Today, Bostwick maintains one of the few operational cotton gins in Georgia.

Each year the town celebrates its agrarian roots with the Cotton Gin Festival to support the restoration of the Susie Agnes Hotel, which now serves as the town's city hall. Many may recognize this red brick building from its film debut as Parker Hotel in the 1992 comedy My Cousin Vinny.

The Town of Buckhead

Not to be confused with Atlanta's bustling Buckhead, our Buckhead is known as the real Buckhead! Making up the western banks of beautiful Lake Oconee, this town (population 195) is home to Blue Springs Marina, Sugar Creek Marina and the exceptional Steffen Thomas Museum of Art. Settled in the early 1800s, Buckhead was incorporated in 1908. However its heyday came in the 1930s when the Georgia Railroad designated it as a layover between Atlanta and Augusta.

The City of Rutledge

Just west of Madison lies Rutledge, a town of only 870 and the gateway to Hard Labor Creek State Park. Rutledge's historic district is virtually unchanged since its heyday as a railroad town, founded in 1871. Here you can grab lunch at a deli housed in the last caboose to travel the local rails, pick up flower seeds at a hardware store in continuous operation since 1891, or catch up with a friend over a piece of buttermilk pie at Yesterday's Cafe. With a popular farmer's market, summer concert series and other fun seasonal events – Rutledge may be small, but it sure is special!
